

Recommended AUDIO BOOKS

for
TEENS

Airborn by Kenneth Oppel

Matt was born on an airship and feels very comfortable as a cabin boy when he meets Kate and they attempt to solve the mystery of strange winged creatures living above the Earth's surface.

Along for the Ride by Sarah Dessen

Auden moves away from her controlling mother the summer before college and lives with her father, stepmother, and their new baby as she experiments with things she missed when younger and meets a boy named Eli.

Artemis Fowl by Eoin Colfer

Twelve-year-old genius Artemis Fowl tries to boost his family fortune by kidnapping a fairy so that he can gain fairy secrets and steal their gold, but he does not count on the strength of the other fairies to rescue the captured fairy.

Bloody Jack by L.A. Meyer

A young girl, hoping to escape the treachery of living on the streets in eighteenth century London, disguises herself as a boy and begins an adventure at sea.

Carter Finally Gets It by Brent Crawford

Will Carter tells the humorous story of his first year in high school as he hopes to join the baseball team, win a spot in the class play, and meet a girl.

Dairy Queen by Catherine Gilbert Murdock

While training him for football over the summer, D.J. is attracted to Brian, the rival school's quarterback. When she becomes the only female on her school's football team, their new relationship is strained.

Down the Rabbit Hole: An Echo Falls Mystery by Peter Abrahams

While lost on her way to soccer practice, thirteen-year-old Ingrid accidentally becomes entangled in the murder of a strange woman and must decipher clues to discover who committed the murder.

Elsewhere by Gabrielle Charbonnet

After a terrible accident, Liz Hall goes to a place called Elsewhere where she tries to adjust to the afterlife and leave her old life on Earth behind.

Eon: Dragoneye Reborn by Alison Goodman

Eona disguises herself as a boy named Eon hoping to be chosen as a Dragoneye – an apprentice to an energy dragon.

Eragon by Christopher Paolini

A teenage boy finds a mysterious blue stone that hatches into a dragon, leading him into a world of magical creatures in the medieval land of Alagaesia.

The Extraordinary Adventures of Alfred Kropp by Rick Yancey

An ordinary boy is coerced into stealing Excalibur, the legendary sword of King Arthur, leading him on a whirlwind quest to retrieve the sword delivered to the wrong man.

Feed by M.T. Anderson

In a future society, Titus is accustomed to the implanted feed in his head that tells him what to do and think until he meets a girl who rebels against it.

Graceling by Kristin Cashore

Lady Katsa lives in a medieval world and has the unusual Grace of killing. She goes on a journey with fellow Graceling, Prince Po, to save the kingdom from an evil king.

A Great and Terrible Beauty by Libba Bray

After the death of her mother, Gemma goes to Spence Academy in London where her supernatural powers slowly become evident as she enters a mysterious realm to communicate with her deceased mother.

The Hunger Games by Suzanne Collins

In a post-apocalyptic world, Katniss and Peeta compete in an annual televised survival contest with twenty-two other participants in which there will be only one winner.

If I Stay by Gayle Forman

After a tragic accident kills her parents and brother, Mia clings to life while deciding whether to give up and join her family or live.

Inkheart by Cornelia Funke

A young girl learns that her father, who repairs and binds books for a living, can "read" fictional characters to life when one of the characters abducts him and tries to force him into service.

Keturah and Lord Death by Martine Leavitt

When Keturah becomes lost in the forest, Lord Death wants to take her away, but she convinces him to allow her one more day of life to find her one true love.

Life as We Knew It by Susan Beth Pfeffer

In journal entries, Miranda tells about life on Earth after a meteor knocks the moon out of its orbit causing catastrophic problems on Earth such as tsunamis, earthquakes, food shortages, and more.

Pirates!: The True and Remarkable Adventures of Minerva Sharpe and Nancy Kington, Female Pirates by Celia Rees

After her father dies, wealthy Nancy Kington is shipped off to Jamaica to an arranged marriage with an evil man. She and a slave, Minerva Sharpe, become pirates to escape the wicked plan.

Shiver by Maggie Stiefvater

Grace continually sees a pack of wolves in her backyard including one special yellow-eyed wolf, to which she feels a strange attraction.

Swim the Fly by Don Calame

While trying to impress a girl on his swim team by swimming the 100-yard butterfly, Matt and his two best friends have also set a summertime goal of seeing a naked girl.